Let There Be Light

Anonymous

1. Let there be light! Let dark-ness flee a - way! Let there be
2. Let there be light From cand-le sticks a - flame, In each small 3. Let there be trum-pets with a cer-tain sound, Wak-ing the *4. Let there be prayer, the breath of ev 'ry soul, Let there be light on Is - rael's path to - day. How sweet the earth - ly "temp - le to His name." Let there be slum - b'ring church to gath - er round. Sud - den - ly prayer that God will make us whole. Let there be bright - ness shines from east - ern gate Up - on the prayer with in - cense sweet to rise On ev - 'ry come and judge the need - y soul! Seal us for - love in ev - 'ry heart a - flame, Let there be broadly and solemnly con - trite ones who watch and wait. With in the al - tar with our sac - ri - - fice. The liv - ing ev - er safe from sin's con - - trol. The ho - ly faith in Je - sus' ho - ly name. Let per - fect

This stanza optional as a second stanza, when only two are used.

veil   the Great High Priest a - - lone   Ap - pears   to bread   the hun - gry soul   to   feed,   The Word   of law   en - graved up - on   each   heart,   The fi - nal right - eous - ness   be formed with - - in.   The Lamb   of a tempo

cleanse   and   pu - ri - fy   His   own,   Walk   in   the God - Oh, this   is strength in - deed!   A - rise   and full - ness   of   Thy love im - part.   Let   there   be God   can   take   a - way   all   sin.   Let   there   be light   till   ev - 'ry   lift - ed   face   Re - flects   the shine! Show forth   the   dawn - ing   ray,   For   light   is glor - ious light from   sea   to   sea.   Nor   may   the bread   the mul - ti - tude   to   feed,   Let   there   be molto ritard light   from   Heav'n's Most   Ho - ly   Place, come   to   Is - rael's   house   to   day! light   have   shone   in   vain   for   me!

light   for   all   who   feel   their   need!